PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

I began my higher education at the Fachhochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg in 2006 and completed my studies with a degree in Economics at Budapest Business University in 2011.

Over the course of a 15-year career, I have worked in both commercial and technical roles. I gained experience in the machinery production supply chain on the sales side at EMTC Electrical Machinery Manufacturing Company (Ltd.), and on the production and logistics side in automotive manufacturing at Mercedes-Benz Manufacturing Hungary (Ltd.), involved in activities related to manufacturing and semi-knocked-down logistics. At the Hungarian State Railways (MÁV), I spent three years working in rail operations as a locomotive driver, which provided some of the most direct and responsibility-based experience in industrial environments.
